TARANGA

Editorial Desk

Rohith S
Assistant Professor

It gives me immense pleasure to write an editorial note for the third edition of TARANGA, which is half yearly newsletter from the department of Electronics & Communication Engineering.

This newsletter has been planned and published to encourage the students and faculty members to bring out their talent in technical and non technical activities. This edition contains activities and achievements of the department in the previous year. This newsletter helps the students in developing their communication skills and to be abreast with the latest technologies in the field of electronics & communication.

We wish all the readers and entire team of TARANGA all the best.

Sri. J. Chaithanya Varma
CEO, NES

It is indeed a great pleasure for me that the department of Electronics & Communication Engineering has taken a good Initiative of showcasing the talents of its staff and students, by unveiling the first edition of newsletter “Taranga” I hope that the department continues its good work by doing such activities, thus motivating the staff and student community. The newsletter should not only be limited to technical aspects, but should also contain information useful to the outside world. I wish the department all the best.

Dr. K.S. Deshikachar Director
NES

I have seen the department of Electronics & Communication Engineering growing to a great height in the last fifteen years. The department keeps doing well in academic, co-curricular and extracurricular activities. Now, it is a pleasure on my part to know that the department exhibits the talents of staff and students by unveiling the first edition of its newsletter “Taranga” I wish the staff and students of the department a great success.

Dr. S. G. Gopalakrishna Principal
NCET

I am extremely happy to say that the department of Electronics & Communication Engineering is the pioneer among all engineering departments of NCET in releasing the newsletter. The department excels not only in academics, but also in other supporting activities, which are very much essential for the students in their overall development. I take this opportunity to congratulate the department by taking this initiative of exhibiting the talents of its staff and students by releasing the newsletter. I expect many more such activities from the department in future and wish the entire team of ECE all the best.

Dr. Nagesh K.N.
Professor & HOD

It gives me immense pleasure to congratulate students and staff of Electronics and Communication Engineering Department for their support in the publication of the department newsletter. It is believed to be the focus of departmental activities that is academics, students and faculty achievement as well as innovation occurring in the department. I hope we will continue to deliver our best to the department and college.
